BURGUNDY SCHOOL OF BUSINESS LEAD FOR CHANGE

ISBR Business School
REAL WORLD REAL LEARNING

COOPERATION AGREEMENT

Between

BURGUNDY SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

And

International School of Business and Research

ESC Dijon-Bourgogne trading as Burgundy School of Business, 29 rue Sambin 21000 Dijon, France (hereafter named BSB) and International School of Business and Research 107, Behind BSNL Telephone Exchange Electronics City Phase 1 Bangalore 560100, (address) (hereafter named ISBR) being aware that the quality of their research and teaching is strengthened by the establishment of international cooperation links, agree to implement an Exchange Agreement in accordance with the principles and guidelines set below.

1. OBJECTIVES:

a) The general objective of this agreement is long term research and educational collaboration in fields which are compatible with the orientation of each institution, and which are relevant to the industrial, social and cultural interests and needs of the countries wherein the parties are respectively located.

b) The initial focus will be collaboration through student and faculty exchanges.

2. STUDENT EXCHANGE:

a) Students participating in the exchange will be selected by their respective schools according to criteria established by the host institution. Individual direct applications of students will not be accepted as part of this exchange agreement.

b) Students participating in the exchange will be integrated into the host institution as regular students, and will be subject to the student rules and regulations of the host institution.

c) Students participating in the exchange will not be charged tuition by the host institution. This agreement is based on reciprocity. Each student will register and pay tuition fees at her/his home institution.

d) Students will be responsible for the cost of room, board, travel or other personal expenses (including books).

e) Students from each institution will register in their institution of origin, but will enjoy the privileges accorded to students at the host institution.

f) Students from both institutions must have their course selections approved by their home department and appropriate academic authority in order to obtain transfer of credits.

g) A maximum of five students for a semester of study every academic year (or two for a full academic year) will be allowed to take part in the program.

h) Students will be registered as exchange students on a transfer of credits basis and will therefore not seek the award of a degree

i) Participating exchange students will be required to carry adequate health insurance and to provide proof to the host institution that their insurance will cover the cost of health care during the period of exchange.

3. FACULTY EXCHANGE

Both BSB and ISBR encourage their faculty members to consider teaching at the partner institution. The host institution will be responsible for the cost of accommodation and payment of teaching hours. Access to an office space and to a class of French as a Foreign Language will be available at BSB.

4. COLLABORATIVE RESEARCH AND CASE WRITING

Each institution acknowledges the potential benefits of conducting joint research and case writing in areas of coincident interest and complementarity. The terms will be mutually agreed upon at a later stage.

5. HOUSING

Each institution will assist arriving students to secure suitable housing for the period of time that they will be on campus.

6. DURATION, AMENDEMENT, REVIEW AND TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

a) This agreement shall take effect from the spring semester of 2019 for a period of 2 years. It shall be subject to revision, modification or renewal by mutual written agreement.

b) The Agreement may be terminated at the request of either institution, provided such request is made in writing at least twelve months before termination is to become effective. Any termination must take into account the right of students already participating or accepted for any exchange to complete their stay.

c) A review of this agreement will be initiated by both institutions at least 12 months prior to the expiration of this Agreement to ascertain if the program should be continued and, if so, how it might be improved.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this Agreement has been signed by the proper officers of each institution.

Dr Stéphan BOURCIEU
Dean and Director General
Burgundy School of Business

France

Date: 23/09/2018

Kirron Bindu
Director of International Relations International School of Business and Research Bangalore 560019

Date: 21/9/2018