BENGALURU

ISBR Business School, a leading business school based out of Bengaluru, has been adjudged as the 'Best Business School with Industry Collaborations in the Emerging Business Schools' category by the All India Council of Technical Education-Confederation of Indian Industry (AICTE-CII) Survey 2020.

The survey assesses the status of partnership between institutions and industry on six basic parameters such as curriculum, faculty, governance, infrastructure, placements and research and services / project & skill development. ISBR has scored high on every parameter and emerged on top from among 69 shortlisted management institutions that participated in the survey across India.

The AICTE-CII Survey for Industry-Linked Technical Institutes maps Industry linkages of Indian technical institutes in four broad streams – Engineering, Management, Architecture and Pharmacy. It showcases the best practices of partnerships with industry and highlights the strengths and weaknesses of the ecosystem of technical education in India.

ISBR has been consecutively ranked as the Platinum institute by the AICTE- CII survey for 5 years in a row.

Dr. Lakshman Kumar, Director, ISBR, said, "We are excited to receive this honour from the apex advisory body of education in the country. Creation and dissemination of knowledge has been the motto which drives everyone at ISBR. The school is working towards securing its place among the global rankings of promising business schools. Faculties and management at ISBR believes in learning and un-learning and re-learning.

It is this spirit that has enabled the school to retain the quality of delivery that we have been providing year after year to our stakeholders. We prepare our students to think boldly and act confidently in any environment, fostering him to be a lifelong learner, a transforming leader for the society. ISBR is a different path taken towards creating a socially conscious and effectively employable workforce for the future.

About AICTE- CII Survey

Conceptualized by CII in 2011 as a pilot and implemented in close coordination with AICTE since 2012, the AICTE-CII IndPact Survey is now a mature tool to measure the depth and extent of collaborations between technical institutions in the country and industry. It was given the name IndPact in 2013 and the two words which have been combined to arrive at this name are "Industry" and "Impact". The scope of the survey has increased manifold in the past eight years. It was initially launched only for six streams of engineering discipline in 2012. After its huge success, its coverage was expanded to other disciplines such as management, pharmacy and architecture in the following years. In 2014, participation was expanded to include all types of institutes such as self-financed institutes (including deemed universities), government institutes, government-aided institutes and centrally funded institutes (IITs, NITs etc). From 2017, participation in the first level of this survey became mandatory for all technical institutions in the country.

ISBR Business School

ISBR Business School founded by young entrepreneur, Mr. Manish Kothari, is a leading management institution with collaborations with International universities of Europe, US, and Australia.
